The special intention of Our Novena is to seek Our Lady's intercession for a fresh outpouring of vocations to the priesthood/religious life. We also present our own personal intentions to her and ask her to help us on our journeys. Blessed Alan de Roche is quoted as saying 'The Holy Rosary is a storehouse of countless blessings.'

We are also reminded of the enormous strength in community prayer as Jesus tells us in St. Mathews Gospel, 'Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am among them.' We can take heart today in these assurances. Let's come together in our respective Churches and unite our prayers.
