Smith and Jones approached the news – stand. Smith greeted the news vendor very courteously, but got very discourteous service in return. Accepting the newspaper, which was shoved very rudely in his direction, Smith smiled and wished the news vendor a nice day. As the two friends walked away, Jones asked: Does he always treat you so rudely? Unfortunately, he does, answered Smith. And are you always that friendly to him, enquired Jones. I try to be, replied Smith, because I don't want him to decide for me how I am going to act!
