Let your TDs know ‘we need Mass’ Statement from Archbishop Eamon Martin

The Church is stepping up the campaign to put pressure on the Government to allow people to attend Mass in a safe and physically-distanced way. Archbishop Eamon Martin has urged Catholics to let members of the Oireachtas know that Mass can resume in a way that is safe. There has been no evidence that church gatherings in Ireland are contributing to the spread of Covid-19 infection.

Outlining the proactive steps parishes have taken, Archbishop Martin points out that “we have limited substantially the numbers attending Mass and taken responsible decisions to modify liturgical actions so that people can gather and participate safely”. “In making the case for public worship at all stages of lockdown we are not claiming special privilege over other places – like gyms, restaurants or sports. We are simply stating the fact that, for Christians, gathering to worship God is not an optional extra – it is a profound expression of who we are as individual spiritual beings and as Church.”

“I encourage all Catholics to make contact with their TDs to remind them that being separated from the sacraments and from the reception of the Eucharist is a painful absence: spiritually, mentally, emotionally and physically.” (Quotes taken from this week’s ‘Irish Catholic’ newspaper)

November is the month when we remember our Departed Loved Ones and all the Holy Souls

As in other years, Masses for our ‘Lists of the Dead’, will be celebrated during the month of November. This year as all Masses in November will be celebrated in St. Patrick’s Church, Dromahair, the ‘Lists of the Dead’ will be placed upon the altar. Masses---via the church webcam.

You will find your List of the Dead and pink November Offering Envelope behind your October Dues Envelope, in your box. You may drop in your envelope to Fr Paul at the Parochial House (or in Killargue to John McMorro). Please don’t leave November Offering envelopes (or indeed any envelopes containing offerings) into unattended churches. If you don’t have an official Envelope & List, please use an ordinary envelope and mark it ‘November List’. Thank you.

ANNIVERSARY MASSES: Mass Intentions which have already been booked to be offered in either Killargue or Newtownmanor Churches over the next few weeks, will be transferred to Dromahair Church, where they will be celebrated ‘behind closed doors’ and streamed live via the church webcam. Alternatively, these Masses may be rescheduled to a future date upon the resumption of the celebration of public Masses in the parish. Please contact Fr Paul, in this regard.

RECENTLY DECEASED: Anita McTernan, Kenya & formerly of Dromahair, whose funeral took place in Killenummery on Saturday, 31st October. Hugh McHugh, Larkfield Bar, whose funeral took place in Killargue on Tuesday 27th October.

May they Rest in Peace. Amen.

Offertory, Dues & Other Collections

THANK YOU to all those who have dropped Offertory, Dues and Special Collection envelopes (including Lists of the Dead & November Offerings), into my house or have given them to me in person. Your support and generosity towards the parish in these difficult times, is very much appreciated. Thanks again. Fr Paul.

Act of Spiritual Communion

(For those watching mass via the webcam. Please pray this prayer with Fr Paul before the final prayer of the Mass.)

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.
