Sunday 9th June 2024 – Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Who are My Mother and My Brothers and Sisters?

We live our lives in the circle of many relationships, connections, friendships, loves. We live in a web of relationships which have been essential to our lives: people close to us now, people who have died, people who were once part of life but from whom we have drifted.

And we live in the circle of God's love. Maybe we wonder, how central to our whole lives our special people are. What can be more central than family relationships?

Yet Jesus says that our relationship with God is more central. We are united in human bonds— of parent-child, brother-sister and other family relationships; that beautiful web of support and comfort we all want, hope for and try to give; but there is another bond—our deepest unity is in God.

As well as our human bonds, we are children of God, and living within the love of the gospel, we are brothers and sisters of Jesus.

Lord, as I sit my exams, send your Holy Spirit to guide me and be with me. Thank you for the many talents and gifts you have given me and for the opportunity of education. Keep me calm. Help me to do the best I can on the day of my exam. Help me to remember all that I have studied, to express it clearly and to answer the questions as best that I can. Give me peace, understanding and wisdom and be with me today and always. We make this prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.
