Kilmore Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock led by Most Rev. Leo O'Reilly, Bishop of Kilmore
Sunday 17th June 2007 ~ Ceremonies begin at 2.30pm.

The people of the Diocese have supported this pilgrimage only in very small numbers in recent years. Your bishop has requested that you think about supporting it somewhat better this year and maybe make it a family day out ~ the Pilgrimage Ceremonies only take up a relatively short part of the day!

The theme of this year's pilgrimage:-

That the younger generation may develop a deep love for their faith and continue to practise it.

History will have to record, that the greatest tragedy of this period of social transition was not the strident clamour of bad people, but the appalling silence of good people.
