A man went to see his bank manager to ask for a loan.

Really, said the bank manager, I should refuse your request, but I'll give you a sporting chance. Now one of my eyes is made of glass and, if you can tell me which one it is, I'll grant your loan.

The customer looked at him intently for a moment and then said, It's your right eye.

That's correct, said the bank manager, but how did you know?

Well, said the customer, It's the kind and sympathetic one.
