Sunday 24th July 2022 – The 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today is World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly

Lord Jesus, help families and society to value the presence and role of grandparents.

May they never be ignored or excluded,
but always encounter respect and love.

Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them.

Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage,
and by your prayers, grant that all families
may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen.

Today's Gospel – Points to Ponder

The Lord's Prayer Ronald Rolheiser tells a story about an elderly professor who spoke one day in class about his practice of prayer.

First of all, he noted that prayer isn't easy because we're always tired or busy or distracted or bored. 'So, here's what I do,' said the professor. 'No matter what my day is like, no matter what's on my mind, no matter what my distractions and temptations are, I am faithful to this practice: once a day I pray the Our Father as best I can from where I am at that moment.'

Inside of everything that's going on inside me and around me, I ask God to hear me through the words of the Lord's prayer.' That sounds relatively easy to us but is it really? Many of us say numerous Our Father's a day but how often are we actually inside the prayer when we say it?

To be inside it is to realise that this is Jesus' prayer to the Father and that when we say it, we are meant to inhabit his consciousness and make it our own. Luke's version in today's Gospel is not familiar to us in the way that Matthew's is.

By saying it slowly, we avoid the danger of 'mindless mouthing' and let its various meanings touch our hearts. As John Shea says, 'Prayer is not mere mouth material but the inner being of the human person in communion with God.'
